SONGS OF THE MARCH

SENIOR CLASS SONG

(Tune—Anchors Aweigh)

As the class of '43
We wish to say good-bye,
To our beloved G. H. S.
We'll love her 'till we die.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
We want to bid farewell
To the teachers, too.
They've taught us very well.
So thanks a lot
And now good-bye to you!
We are the graduates
After twelve long years.
To those many happy days,
We'll give them three big cheers.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
We'll try to do our best
Face life square and true.
As the class of '43,
We say good-bye
We say good-bye
to you!

GARRETT HIGH SCHOOL

Garrett High School, Garrett High School,
Fight on for your fame.
Drop the ball right in the basket.
Listen to our cries! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Garrett High School, Garrett High School
Fight on for your fame.
Fight fellows, fight, fight, fight,
We'll win this game.

WE'RE ALL FOR YOU

Garrett High School, Oh, Garrett High School,
Garrett High School, we're all for you.
We will fight for the Maroon and Blue,
And the glory of Garrett High.
Never daunted, we cannot falter.
In our battles so tried and true.
Garrett High School, Oh, Garrett High School,
Garrett High we're all for you.

ALMA MATER

Come and join in song together,
Shout with might and main.
Our beloved Alma Mater,
Sound her praise again.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
E'r to her be true.
Our beloved Garrett High School
Hail Maroon and Blue.

GARRETT HIGH SCHOOL

"How dear to my heart

Are the scenes of my childhood."

ON PARADE

Ability to show up well on parade does not come by chance. It grows out of long hours of previous training and intelligent practice. Only those who have anticipated and prepared for the responsibilities ahead are really qualified to participate. The emergency does not make men; it merely reveals them.

All of us have been, and shall continue to be, "on parade." Each will be expected to perform satisfactorily in whatever activity he may engage. Eager spectators will observe us along the line of march. As in the past, our teachers, classmates and parents have watched and evaluated our performances, so shall we continue to be tested in the crucible of adult participation in community and world activities. Prepared by our years of study and training together we shall go forward. We shall make glad those who have put their confidence in us.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune:
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows, and in miseries.
On such a full sea are we now afloat;
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures."

PARADE ROUTERS

Greatness is the composite of many little things well planned and efficiently executed. Great things are accomplished by people who make the most of every opportunity, however small it may seem. When evaluated by this standard Mr. Painter and Mr. Minniear rank at the top. They not only have planned well our educational program but also have executed it efficiently. Their lives are a challenge of leadership, action, and dependability to every person marching onward in the parade of life.

"Lives of great men all remind us
We may make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Robert Ellis

Her pleasant voice in joyous tones
Made glad our scenes of strife;
Of all the lessons that she taught
The greatest was her life.

Victory she saw in every trial,
Pleasure in every pain,
Strength in every weakness,
Sunshine through every rain.

There was no death! From day to day
We smile in our sorrow;
Her memory is teaching still,
The lesson for tomorrow.

PARADE OF MEMORIES

Good things cannot last forever, but the cherished memories of those glorious schooldays will never be forgotten. Already those rather commonplace freshmen occupational reports have become very much alive, now that we are about to make our own way in the big world outside of school. As we continue to think over those days that are past, a whole parade of memories goes tripping by.

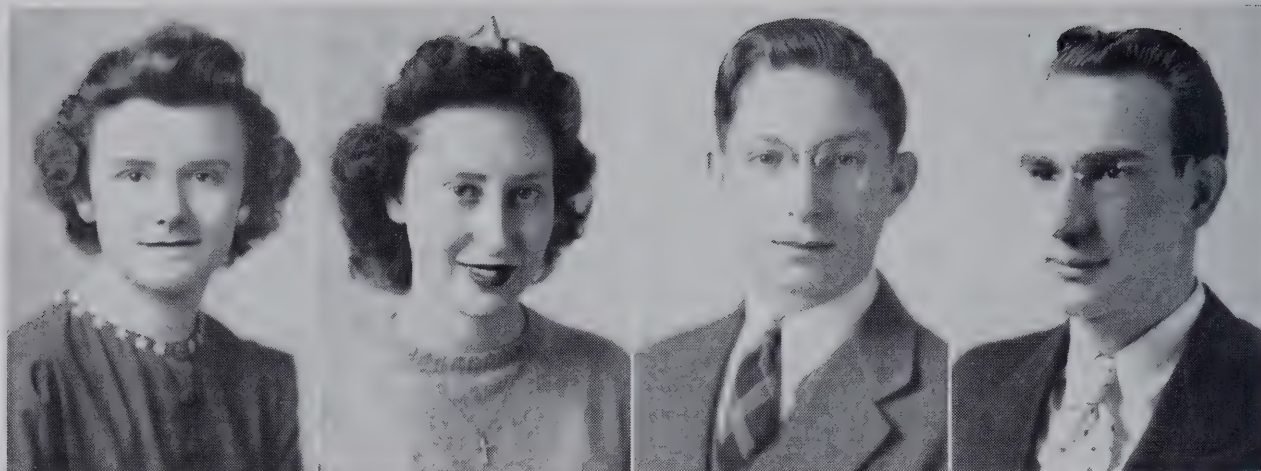

Look! Oh, isn't that darling? It's a parade float by one of those little "Co-ed" parties that we had in Room 28 way back in our freshman year. There's Christy sitting alone at the Blue Triangle-Freshman Boys' Club Calendar Party, poor little fellow.

Who's that on the gaily-decorated thrones? George and Lila? Oh, sure, they were chosen in our first election as the president and first lady. Remember our beloved "Shanny" and his part, along with Miss Evard's in the great megaphone sale? Who'll ever forget Delmar Diederich or Basil Bickel as sophomore cheer leaders? That was our year; we really put the sophomores on the map. The good old days when the sophomores were upper-classmen in Hi-Y and Girl Reserves. Remember that black "Mercury" that played school bus for the Waterloo G. R. Conference? How about that unforgettable sophomore party when the "Senior Smoothies" were just "Sophomore Shufflers" in dancing.

No, the next float doesn't represent Antony and Cleopatra or Clark Gable and Lana Turner—it's the class of '43 as jolly, good-natured, sentimental juniors. Remember? It was about that time that Schlosser and Tuck fanned the flame, then Huffman contracted her incurable crush on Creager, and Kookon used her ingenuity on Black. Schlosser was our chief executive, he did a nice job and we won't forget Jerry Muzzillo's unbelievable work as financial chairman.

Will anyone forget Physical Fitness (oh, the stiffness) or those "beloved" arithmetic classes. Was there anyone who didn't have a struggle with economics? Let's not mention the tournament. We were pretty busy at the end of the year with the class play, class day, commencement and everything, but all in all it was pretty swell and we rather hated to see the time come when high school days would be over. Yes, the events are past but the memories linger.

PIGSKIN PARADE

The G. H. S. '42 football season was one of "Gridiron Glory." For the first time the Railroaders captured the Northeastern Indiana Conference Championship.

For a starter Garrett chalked up a tie game with Portland and a defeat at the hands of Warsaw. Profiting from experience, the "Parksmen" defeated the strong Columbia City team and then followed through by breaking the Hicksville tie jinx and downing the powerful Decatur and Central (B) teams. Smarting from a defeat administered by the powerful Goshen team, the "Parksmen" came back to trounce the fiery Red Devils.

The prospects for 1943 are promising if the armed forces spare enough boys to make a team.

SEASON'S RECORD

ROGER GELHAUSEN—Tackle, 3 year letterman. "Hornsby" our captain was always in there fighting until the final gun sounded. He made Auburn know Garrett was on the field by killing the fatal touchdown attempt.

JAMES SCHLOSSER—Tackle, 3 year letterman. "Jim" was a hard-hitting tackle who could play almost any position well. It was his long kickoffs that helped to make our rivals short of a touchdown.

DALE CUSTER—Guard, 3 year letterman. "Ek" was a husky boy who could do powerful things. It was his hard hitting that stopped many a run before it got started.

JAMES PORTER—End, 1 year letterman. "Handy-man Jim" was the boy who made the shoe-string tackles and snagged passes out of the ether, in a way that seemed unbelievable.

ALAN FITCH—End, 1 year letterman. "Al" our lanky right-end, caught those long touchdown passes. He could always be counted on to see that no rival back got around his end.

CHRISTY KALAFAT—Guard, 1 year letterman. Christy better known as "Tiny" was the big boy of our outfit. When "Tiny" blocked with his bone crushing shoulder, his opponent knew he had met his match.

EUGENE SOUDER—Half-back, 1 year letterman. "Sod" as he was better known was the boy with the educated toe. He's the one that punted those long specials down the field.

RAILROADERS' RAMBLE

JOHN WILLIAM SARPA—5 ft. 11 in., guard. "Sarp," another junior, was a long shot artist. His high arched shots came in handy in every game.

HARLEY HOMER HART—5 ft. 8 in., guard. "Homer," also a junior, was really a true guard. His long shots were what the Railroaders needed for their winning score.

THOMAS MARTIN MUHN—6ft., forward. "Tom," only a sophomore, showed up the rest of the squad, with close shots he always made count.

RICHARD LEROY LEWIS—6 ft. 1 in., center. Another sophomore, Dick had a fine basket eye. He was also quick on the rebound.

OSCAR ALAN FITCH—6 ft. 3 in., center. "Al," a senior this year, will be remembered for his fine rebounding under both baskets that boosted our scores and broke up the opponents' plays.

JAMES CARSON SCHLOSSER—5 ft. 11 in., guard. "Jim," another senior, was a constant player and took over his position well when needed.

JOHN FREDERICK BEHLER—5 ft. 10., guard. "Johnny's" accurate one-handed shots added much to the Garrett scores. A lot can be expected of him in the next two years.

LOREN EDWIN HEINLEN—5 ft. 10 in., forward. "Loren," a junior, put the ball into the hoop from any position on the floor and piled up the score for Garrett.

Taking the place of the departing seniors, is a class that will no doubt "carry on" for the glory of G. H. S. Under the leadership of their able advisors, Mrs. Sweeney, and Mr. Rose, and their cabinet, Max Clark, Lura Sherman, Clarence Powell, and Berneda Smythlony, the Junior Class has experienced a very profitable school year. Through the sale of candy at their candy case, and the sale of ice cream bars and candy at the basketball and football games.

they have gathered quite a sum to deposit in their treasury. After giving the seniors a farewell party, the juniors have planned to contribute their surplus to other causes.

The "Jolly Juniors" have been eagerly looking forward to the time when they can proudly fill the places of the "Dignified Seniors", and make a name for themselves, as have so many senior classes of G. H. S. in the past. The juniors have reached the high spot of their school career.

SUNNY SOPHOMORES

The "Sunny Sophomores" really shown brightly this year, the highlight of their activities being the scrap drive which they, together with the F. F. A., sponsored and conducted. Another outstanding activity was the "all-school dance" which was carried out with great success. The Freshman-Sophomore party sponsored earlier in the year by the sophomores turned out to be a barrell full of fun for both the grades. Their officers, John Behler, Betty Weaver, Ana Williams, and Tom Muhn, with the aid of Miss Thrush, Miss Evard, and Mr. Cudworth, led the class through a prosperous year. They are indeed worthy to assume the added responsibilities that will fall upon them as they become the juniors of Garrett High.

"Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
 But they with a chuckle replied
 That "maybe it couldn't," but they would be those
 Who wouldn't say so till they'd tried.
 So they started right in with a trace of a grin
 On their face. If they worried they hid it.
 They started to sing as they tackled the thing
 That couldn't be done—and they did it."

FRIENDLY FRESHMEN

Although the Freshmen had no class organization, they were prominent in Blue Triangle, Torch Club, Booster Club, and all athletic activities. They aided in the sale of stamps and bonds, made booster club posters, sold booster pins, and kept things in general quite lively.

Having experienced during the past year such subjects as Latin, Biology, and General Math., they are eager to go forward in the ever-moving parade of the classes. If they do not find a place for themselves, they will make one.

"Vigor, vitality, vim and punch—
The courage to act on a sudden hunch—
With nerve to tackle the hardest thing,
With feet that climb and hands that cling,
And a heart that never forgets to sing."

CLASS OF '47 (Pfc)

The members of the class of '47 have reached a point in their educational program similar in many respects to that achieved by the seniors. Having completed a definite portion of their school life they will now enter upon new and different experiences. When classes start next term these pupils will become full-fledged high school students.

Having already taken an active part in many of the school's activities they will be able to adjust themselves to the many changes in their new schedules. Great things can be expected from them.

"True worth is in being, not seeming;
In doing each day that goes by
Some little good—not in dreaming
Of great things to do by and by.
For whatever men say in blindness,
In spite of the fancies of youth,
There's nothing so kindly as kindness
And nothing so royal as truth."

NEW RECRUITS

Last of the groups to join the ranks of the "Parade" are these pupils of the class of '48. Already because of their energy, enthusiasm and loyalty, they have contributed much to the life of the school. Great possibilities are in store for them.
